Memo: Red Rocks Dress Code
To: All Theatrical Services Stagehands for SMG at Red Rocks
From: Joe McCullough / Manager

Red Rocks starting the 2014 year will have the following dress code to be worn on all days that work is going on at Red Rocks. Due to the environment of Red Rocks a specific dress code for this venue only is as follows:

Dress Code for performance times (Opening of doors to public till conclusion of event) remains blacks, venue logo's only or solid.

Load in / out:

Shirts: Neutral solid colored shirts (no tank tops) with no logos except Red Rocks logo provided by the venue, Red Rocks show shirts or IATSE National or Local 7 shirts with bug only. Shirts must in in good condition, no tears or fading.

Pants/Shorts: Neutral solid (no fatigue) color pants or shorts in good condition with no tears and no logos. Shorts should hit near the knee.

Hats: Hat's with no logos except venue specific. Hard hats are to be worn during any overhead working.

Eyes: Sunglasses / eye protection are allowed during the daylight hours.

Safety Vests: Safety vests must be worn when working around moving vehicles (loaders / pushers).

STRONGLY SUGGESTED SAFETY ITEMS:

Footwear: Footwear must cover the full foot, it is strongly encouraged to wear protective shoe wear when working around heavy equipment that can be dropped or rolled.

Gloves: Hand protection is strongly encouraged in inclement weather and when carrying items or when pinch hazards are around.

Ears: Ear protection is available to wear at any time; this is available in the crew room.
